

Staff Personal Security and Safety

Threats

The Superintendent shall establish procedures that provide for the protection of any employee who is threatened with harm by an individual or a group while carrying out assigned duties.